

The Glen Arbor Art Association proudly presents the 19th Manitou Music Festival. The 2009 line-up offers an exciting mix of musical styles for you and your family to enjoy in relaxed outdoor settings.

JULY

- 3 Northport Community Band
Patriotic Music FREE
Glen Arbor Athletic Club
Lawn, Friday, 7 pm
 Bring your lawn chairs and blankets and celebrate the 4th of July with one of Leelanau County's most popular groups!
Rain– Glen Arbor Town Hall
- 8 Mulebone
Blues
Studio Stage, Wednesday, 8 pm
Mulebone is the duo of multi-instrumentalist, John Ragusa and roots music specialist, Hugh Pool. Their musical home is the traditional blues; sometimes they play it straight ahead, while at other moments they float above it, viewing and interpreting from a distant vantage point. John plays conch shell, Jews harp, cornet, all manner of flutes, and tin whistle, while Hugh plays slide guitar boogies, one chord riffs a la Howlin' Wolf and country blues of all shapes and colors.
Rain– Glen Arbor Town Hall

JULY Cont'd

- 12 Shout Sister Shout - Steppin' In It with Rachael Davis
Folk / Jazz FREE
Dune Climb, Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore
Sunday, 7 pm
Steppin' In It and Rachael Davis are known nationally for their folk repertoire, and when they join forces as Shout Sister Shout they focus on old-time American Jazz featuring swing numbers and bluesy ballads. These Lansing musicians perform on vintage instruments and create their own brand of roots music combining old-time country, swing, and blues, a sound reminiscent of the days of old-time radio, with musicianship that is positively staggering. Songwriter and vocalist Rachael Davis is a 2002 Boston Music Award winner.
Rain– Glen Arbor Town Hall
- 15 Blue Origami
Jazz / Blues / World
Studio Stage, Wednesday, 8 pm
 Andrew Bishop's Blue Origami is a 21st Century global jazz and blues project that stands at the intersection of Eastern and Western influenced music. The Trio includes Andrew Bishop on reeds, Duncan McMillan on Hammond B3 organ, and Alex Trajano on drums. Leader and multi-instrumentalist Andrew Bishop is a master improviser in diverse musical genres, and as a composer he has over 20 commissioned pieces to his credit.
Rain– Glen Arbor Town Hall
- 22 Josh White Jr.
Folk / Blues / Gospel
Studio Stage, Wednesday, 8 pm
 A master of vocal inflection and involvement, Josh White Jr. is considered one of music's premiere performers. In the shadow of his father, Josh White Jr. invokes the presence of the Senior, making music for the masses and masses for the music.

JULY Cont'd

- His simple acoustic renditions reveal layer after layer of intrinsically belabored design; pure, unadulterated chords and notes, along with deeply intense lyrics.
Rain: Glen Arbor Town Hall
- 26 Photographers & Kat Eggleston
Contemporary Folk / Roots
Studio Stage - Sunday, 8 pm
Photographers is a homegrown Traverse City roots music band that weaves original songs about ships, mustaches, best friends and Dalmatians. The band includes: Maren Hooper on ukulele and keyboards, John Hanson on guitar, and Dan Mills on percussion and glockenspiel. Kat Eggleston who comes to us from Seattle, has the soul of a poet and the voice of an angel; her songs blend vivid, often gripping, imagery with memorable lyrical melodies. Kat delivers deep and intense interpretations of traditional folk tunes as well as her original compositions.
Rain– Glen Arbor Town Hall
- 30 Jeff Haas & Friends
Jazz
Homestead Resort
Thursday, 7 pm
 Ride the chairlift to the top of the ski hill for a magnificent view and amazing concert! Pianist/composer Jeff Haas grew up in Detroit in a home rich with music. Haas' unique blend of African-American, Jewish, and European musical traditions has earned him national attention. The Detroit Free Press said of Haas, "...his blend of Jewish music and jazz offers a path lit with originality." Jeff Haas can be heard weekly on Interlochen Public Radio hosting "Jazz Connections".
Children are not free for this Glen Arbor Art Association fundraising event.
Rain: Mountain Flowers Meeting Center

AUGUST

- 4 Arts Collage I FREE
Studio Stage, Tuesday, 8 pm
Music: Holly Mae and the Painted Room: vocals, harp, glockenspiel and upright bass; indie/folk/country music propelled by the plaintive vocals of singer-songwriter Holly Mae Haddock.
Poetry: Michigan poet Matt Sadler reads from his latest work.
Film: Climbing Sainte-Victoire: A Danced Homage to Paul Cézanne is a journey into the mind and work of the "Father of Modern Art", French painter Paul Cézanne. The production combines dance, text, music, video, and the imagery of Cézanne's paintings, with poetry and narration by Peter Sparling (of Arts Collage '08) and newly commissioned music by Frank Pahl (of Arts Collage '08).
Rain– Glen Arbor Town Hall
- 5 Arts Collage II
Studio Stage, Wednesday, 8 pm
Music: Laurel Premo shares music drawn from: Appalachian, Celtic, Folk, Cajun, Bluegrass, and Scandinavian roots. Laurel's compositions range from haunting ballads to feverish instrumentals for guitar, banjo, violin and cittern.
Dance: Jumping Off the Bandwagon Contemporary Dance Company will premier three newly choreographed works.
Film: Ann Arbor Film Festival The AAFF traveling show is coming to Glen Arbor! The show will be introduced by the festival's director, Donald Harrison, who will also be on hand for question and answer following the show.
Rain– Glen Arbor Town Hall
- 9 Sister Wilene
Real Country Music
Studio Stage, Sunday, 8 pm
Sister Wilene, named for Wilene Forrester, the only female member of Bill Monroe's

AUGUST Cont'd

- Bluegrass Boys gives a nod to the country/bluegrass/Americana tradition with songs that will take you back to the days when country music was a pocketful of heartfelt ballads and great swing tunes, from Patsy Cline to Bob Wills; from honky-tonks to dance halls to front porches.
Rain– Empire Town Hall
- 11 Summer Singers
Choral / Variety FREE
Glen Lake Reformed Community Church
Tuesday, 8 pm
 For the past five summers under the direction of Richard DeVinney, 60-70 people sing together every week all summer, just for the love of music. Each August they put on a free concert for the public.
- 12 The Electric Blue Quintet
Classical - Woodwinds
Studio Stage, Wednesday, 8 pm
The Electric Blue Quintet is a woodwind quintet committed to performing both the standard works for the ensemble and exploring the boundaries of the contemporary repertoire. The program includes works from: Muczinski, Klughardt, Francaix, and Piazzola.
Rain– Empire Town Hall
- 19 The Wild Turkeys
Bluegrass
Leelanau School
Wednesday, 8 pm
 Join us for the End of Season Bash with The Wild Turkeys, who hail from Northern Ontario, armed with fiddles, mandolin, guitar, bass, harmonica, and melodic four part harmonies, to take Glen Arbor by storm. The Turkeys play a pickin' and grinnin' cowboy music they call "Swamp-Stomp Country". This gang of brothers was voted the best sounding new generation roots band at 2008 Blissfest.
Rain– Leelanau School Student Center

Manitou Music Festival Sponsors:

Ticket Prices for all shows are:
All Tickets are $15.00

Children 18 and under are FREE
 (except the July 30 Benefit Concert)

2009 Glen Arbor Art Association
 Members with card receive $2.00
 discount!

FREE CONCERTS

The Dune Climb
 Northport Community Band
 Summer Singers
 Arts Collage I

Tickets and Concert Information available at:

GAAA office / ph. 334-6112
Lake Street Studios / ph. 334-3179 or online at www.manitoumusicfestival.com

